Dr. D. B. Steinman
Bridge Designer

Future generations will tell the saga of the Mackinac Bridge, an epic story of human vision, courage, and determination.

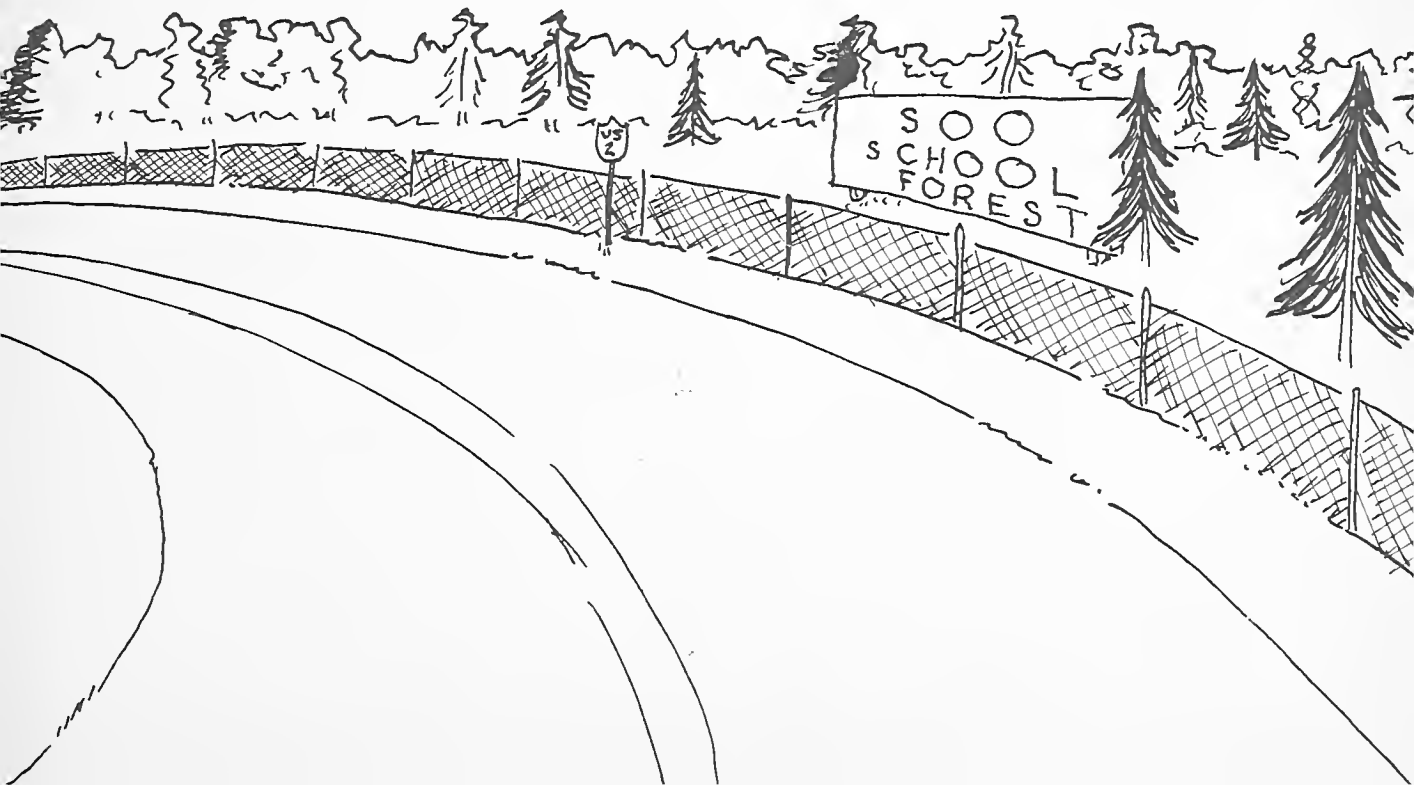

For three-quarters of a century, people were hoping, dreaming, and praying for a bridge across the Straits of Mackinac, to connect the two sections of the great state of Michigan; and for three-quarters of a century many people were saying that the project was impossible, that the cost would be prohibitive, that it could not be financed; that the construction problems were insurmountable; that the bridge could never be built.

But men were found who believed in the project, men of inspired faith and heroic determination. Public spirited citizens, engineers, bankers, contractors, united their talents and strength to make the project a reality. They overcame all odds, all obstacles and difficulties. The financing was successfully accomplished. All of the engineering and construction problems were successfully, economically and safely solved. Under the inspiring leadership of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, headed by Senator Prentiss M. Brown, no effort has been spared to make the Mackinac Bridge the finest, safest and most beautiful bridge the world has ever seen.

Because a beautiful bridge is a poem, I have summarized the story of the Mackinac Bridge in these lines:

Generations dreamed the crossing,
Doubters shook their heads in scorn;
Brave men vowed that they would build it,
From their faith a bridge was born.
There it spans the miles of water,
Speeding millions on their way —
Bridge of vision, hope and courage,
Portal to a brighter day.

The planning and interpretation of ideas from prints has its purpose; similarly, the faculty and staff interpret ideas and plans for the education of today and tomorrow.

"What man can imagine, man can do."

Superintendent, H. H. Holloway

"Students of Sault High have made this a year of unusual achievements in many fields. I cannot recall another year in which the total results of our program could measure up to those now fresh in your memories. These hard-earned and well-deserved goals could not have been reached without the power and leadership of our seniors. Your teachers have confidence that your triumphs will not halt at graduation. We look upon you as young, but competent, 'bridge builders'."

She Was A Must - Miss Patricia Rust

Smiling with modesty, pretty Pat anxiously awaits her crowning. This event climaxed Sault High's 1956 Homecoming. The hours of work put in by Speech Club, the tireless efforts of the band and majorettes in producing an intricate half-time routine, and the pep of the cheerleaders in rooting our team to victory — all these go into the melting pot of a successful homecoming.

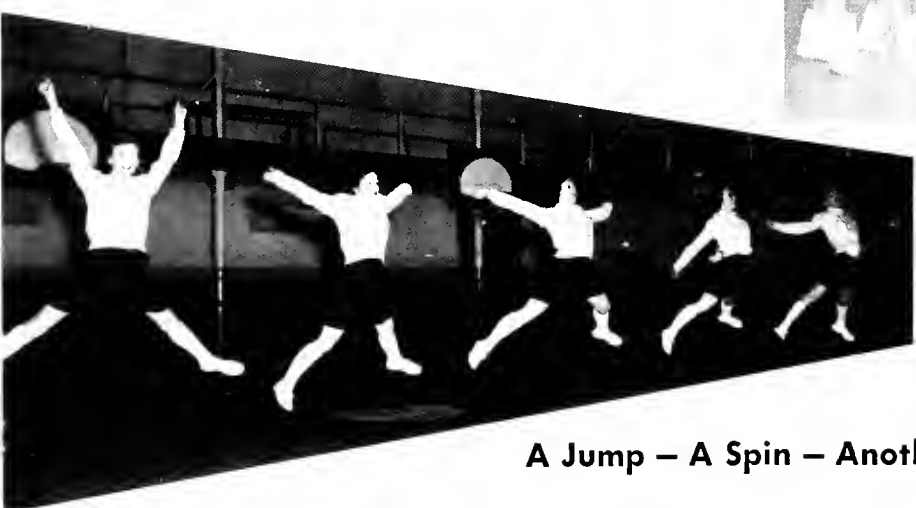

Towering in the sky the first distant evidence of the bridge. Our activities and sports also stretch out proudly for and of the school.

HOMECOMING QUEEN AND COURT: P. Wygaard, S. Seppala, J. Nash, Queen Patricia Rust, V. Bond, R. Armstrong, M. Smith.

We salute femininity at its best!

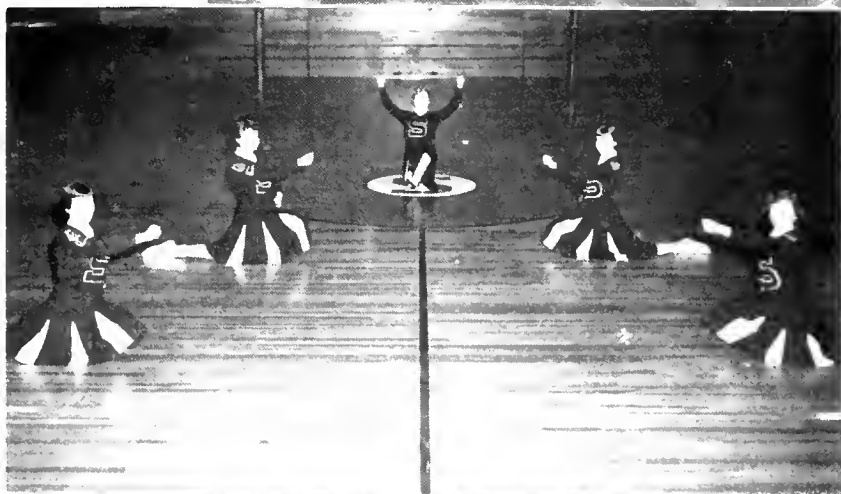

A Jump — A Spin — Another Win

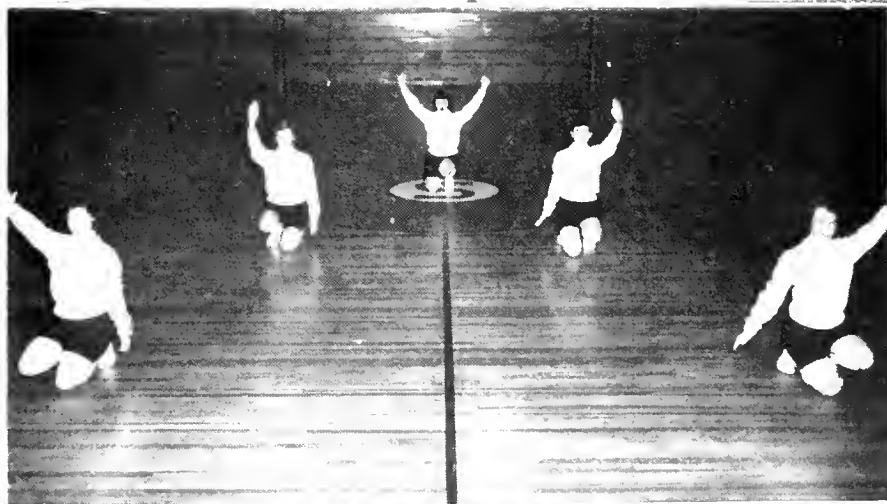

This year's majorettes are strutting a new look. The back line twirlers have been completely eliminated. Now there are just the six majorettes in front of the band. Each year tryouts are held. The girls are judged on their ability and grace. The present drum majorettes are left to right: E. Seamen, A. Peterson, F. Paquin, D. Belperio, D. Tinkis, P. Wygaard.

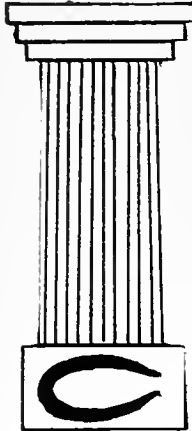

Serving their apprenticeship, the Bee team cheerleaders have their own distinctive style of cheering. They are seen at all Bee team football and basketball games. In future years, the girls are hoping to turn in their navy blue for the varsity white. They are left to right: S. McCaffery, C. Kloviss, K. Cowen, E. Bates, J. Huhtala.

This year's varsity squad topped all previous efforts not only in actual yelling, but also in awakening a school-wide spirit of cooperation and drive. The Varsity cheerleaders are left to right: M. MacDonald, A. Bailey, M. Stewart, J. DeVuono, S. Macdonald.

Learning To Serve, Serving To Learn

The Colonnade Club is a service club for girls. Under the capable leadership of Miss Enich and Mrs. VanCitters, the girls serve their school and community in many ways.

This year Colonnade contributed a sum of money to the Hungarian Relief Fund, sent Christmas cards to patients in the Newberry State Hospital; ushered at music concerts, baccalaureate and graduation; sold refreshments at football and basketball games with Hi-Y.

Members of Colonnade are elected in their junior year by all the girls in their class, senior Colonnade members, and the faculty.

Hi-Y is a service club under the supervision of Mr. Dubow. The purpose of Hi-Y is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character and provide for good fellowship." This organization is open to sophomore, junior, and senior boys. Hi-Y has given to the boys' welfare fund, sponsored assemblies, distributed basketball and football programs, and has been engaged in various other useful services to Sault High during the past year.

Linda did honors as main speaker

A bird's eye view of the Student Council Initiation.

Student Council, the governing body of Sault High, has been active this year not only in affairs of the school and city, but has expanded its program to cover foreign soil. Managing the political assembly and student elections was one of many items on the agenda.

Throughout the year council prepared the social calendar for the school year, provided for the printing and distribution of theater tickets, sponsored a carnival for the exchange student fund, and co-operated with the faculty in making needed adjustments in and around the school.

LaMothe, U. Wiggli, N. Lombros, J. Howard, N. Day, G. Atkins, D. Dickison, H. Blair, J. Montero.

This is Urs Wiggli. You may have seen him walking through the halls of Sault High or wandering about photographing picturesque scenes here in the Sault and at out of town games or trips.

Some of the underclassmen may have wondered, "Who is he?" and "Where does he come from?" Student Council, which sponsored Urs, informs us that he is an exchange student to Sault High from Switzerland. He traveled across the Atlantic aboard the Arosa Kulm with seven hundred other European exchange students.

Urs has done a fine job keeping up with the fast pace set by Sault High students, considering the great difference between European and American schools. He has participated in such extra-curricular activities as Hi-Y, Orchestra, Keynote, and Student Council. He was also noticed working behind the scenes on the Speech Club play.

Urs has made his home in the Sault with "Mom and Dad" Leighton Eseltine and "brother" Aaron. We have all enjoyed Urs' visit, and certainly hope he has enjoyed it as much.

A Fair Exchange

Linda White hardly needs an introduction. She is known by almost everyone in Sault High. Last year, Linda was chosen from four junior girls to represent Sault High in Finland.

Upon her arrival in Finland, Linda was met by her new Finnish "family", Mr. and Mrs. Erkki Aroheimo and daughter Liisa. They took her to their home, which was also to be home to Linda, in Mantsala.

She spent her summer biking, swimming, and meeting Finnish teenagers. Then, all too soon, the summer had ended and Linda was on her way back to America.

She arrived safe and sound in Sault Ste. Marie, and began to readjust to American ways. Back in school, Linda was asked by Student Council to speak to the student body on her trip. Her speech was very interesting and full of emotion, and tears were seen glistening in many eyes when she sat down.

Linda has taught us much from her own experiences about other people and their way of thinking.

Student News And Views

On Friday mornings during homeroom about every two weeks a familiar rustling echoed through the corridors and classrooms. The Keynote was being passed out by the enthusiastic students who had helped put the issue together.

During the year the Keynote office was known for its lack of space, usable typewriters, glue, and for its scissors chained to the desk . . . in general, a "messy" appearance. A typical Keynote hour found advisor John F. MacDonald shouting "Get that story in!" while the big brass of the Editorial Board were seen working as hard as the cub reporters.

Their efforts were well spent. The bi-weekly paper kept Sault High well informed on everything from fashions to sports. Good luck to next year's staff. May they carry on the "A-1" tradition of Keynote.

The Cause Of It All

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS: First Row: M. Nash, C. Kolavos, E. Van Luven, G. McArthur, S. La Bercque, B. MacGregory. Second Row: L. Harrison, E. LaMothe, R. Atkins, M. Armstrong, M. White, D. Curtis, M. White. Third Row: R. Reed, C. Harrison, D. Gagnon, M. Smith, S. Bowers, S. Pesenski, W. DePlanty.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The Homemakers have seen a bright new addition to their classrooms. The gay, green room has added to the creative ability of the girls. Mrs. First and Mrs. Helman have aided the girls with some of the finer points of cooking and sewing. Advice on furniture planning, color planning, and meal planning has given the girls a good background for the future.

Future Cookers And Growers

FUTURE FARMERS: First Row: R. Feltis, J. McGruther, O. Juhala, H. McGruther. Second Row: W. Long, G. Butler, M. Gollinger, S. Nelson, H. Osborn. Third Row: D. Smith, E. Hare, C. Avery, P. Plitz, C. Long.

FUTURE FARMERS

Under the leadership of Mr. Peffers, the Future Farmers have many varied projects which help the boys learn the ways of modern farming. These are carried on in classes at school and also each member has a project at home. They now have a parliamentary board which studies parliamentary procedure and then gives a demonstration to the club members.

FUTURE TEACHERS: First Row: D. Maki, R. Velde, U. Kellis, J. Lovegrove, N. LaMothe, R. Johnson, S. Lowe, E. Mannesto Second Row: G. Hakola, S. Seppela, B. Williamsan, J. Hunt, S. Hudson, D. Smart, J. Kirkpatrick, M. Sheppard.

The purpose of the Future Teachers Club is to interest students in the teaching profession. This year's members have gained valuable experience by helping Sault High teachers as well as grade school teachers. Under the capable direction of Miss Jahns the club has had a very successful year.

Carrying trays, arranging flowers, and delivering mail all added to the duties performed by the junior and senior Future Nurses members serving as aides at War Memorial Hospital. This service consisted of work mainly in the children's department. Supervised by Mrs. Grout, the club has also participated in many other school activities.

An organization that stands out as giving the highest service to students is the Audio Visual Club. Not always given their due credit, the group, under the advisorship of Mr. Herbert Helman, has worked hard this year making our school life far more enjoyable. This year, after many months of planning, the club installed the Hi-Fi set in the auditorium which will benefit students for many years to come. After hearing the difference between the old and new systems, students were amazed at this project completed by the Audio Visual Club.

Hi-Fi Set, Co-Ed. Lunch Room

Because of the efforts of Munchin' Moochers, many students who carry their lunches found their noon hours more enjoyable this year. Selling milk has been one of the projects undertaken by the club under the direction of Mr. Brisson and Mr. Conley. Munchin' Moochers has also sponsored several noon hour parties for its members.

MUNCHIN MOOCHERS: First Row: B. MacGregor, F. Reedy, F. Nordstrom, S. Nobliski, J. Holmstrom, D. Montgomery. Second Row: J. Kniskern, J. Fount, V. MacArthur, M. Stocker, P. Wygaard, G. Hakola. ATOM CRACKERS: First Row: J. Moran, L. Luama, E. Crimin. Second Row: B. Gough, D. Swort, V. Bond, I. Feldmen. Third Row: S. MacLoren, G. Howe, J. Thomos, M. Smith. Fourth Row: D. Allic, P. O'Brien, N. Day, D. Hovevor, B. Roe, T. Slater.

Atom Crackers, the science club of Sault High, provides its members with the opportunity to use science equipment for individual and group projects. These projects give students the opportunity to go beyond the classroom curriculum. This is not a social club, but it tries to sponsor extra activities throughout the year. The club is under the careful supervision of Mr. Wallace Edlund.

Experiments In The Lab., Dinner Monday Noon

This year twenty-four senior boys have helped to make Sault High's ties with our community stronger by their active participation in Junior Rotarians. Rotary Club each year invites boys to participate in their meetings. The boys are chosen on the basis of leadership, dependability, good sportsmanship, and reliability. Each boy attends at least four meetings during the year.

SCHOOL STORE: First Row: L. Yan, E. Crimin, E. Boyer, K. Neimi, A. Peterson, P. Campbell, S. Seppala, S. Newton, E. Young. Second Row: P. Lawrence, G. Greer, G. Fountain, N. Greer, H. Storey, B. Ellis, M. Wonnocott, A. Neilsen, H. Palmer.

School Supply Store is valuable to the participating students for the experience it gives them in the fields of selling and bookkeeping. It is valuable to the school because money gained from the sales is used to buy equipment for the Commercial department of the high school.

Every noon and morning members of the advanced bookkeeping class are practicing their classroom knowledge by purchasing, pricing, and marking goods.

Experts On Selling And Lending Books

Library Club members can be seen every hour of the day busily at work at the Anna Helen Marse Library. Among their various duties are filing cards in the card catalog, checking books in and out for students, repairing books and keeping them in good condition, and keeping the library in neat order for students' use. The Club is under the supervision of Miss Gladys Wold, librarian.

The production THE DESPERATE HOURS, put on by Speech Club lent a dramatic touch to our year's events. Competent actors and actresses portrayed their parts with the quality and finesse of experienced show people. Behind the scenes, the various committees worked to make these productions a success. Stage crew put in much time readying sets; make-up committees dabbled in cold cream, rouge, and lipstick; publicity crews worked to make the event known to the public.

The membership of this organization consists of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Under the supervision of Mrs. Ewing Speech Club also sponsored the 1956 Homecoming.

National Thespians Society is an honorary organization for Speech Club members who have participated in the production of high school plays.

Sponsoring a school party and a booth in the carnival have been among the projects of Thespians.

The nominees for the National Thespians have to receive 20 points during their membership in Speech Club. A member receives these points according to the amount of work put in on any of the crews or on the play itself.

Singing Strings And Vibrant Voices

The boys' glee club, thirty strong, meets once a week for the pure enjoyment of singing. While there are no solo or trained voices, the group sang four-part harmony at our annual variety show. Mr. Joseph Deike leads the group, which has done a fine job and have had fun doing it.

Classic Tunes And Popular Choices

Orchestra: Under the direction of Mr. Button the orchestra has been doing a fine job. Every year this organization engages in out of town festivals. The orchestra takes part in music concerts during the year and also accompanies the processional in June.

First Violins: B. Blackstock, J. Show, B. Haornstra, L. Greer, U. Wiggli, C. Trier. Second Violins: G. Hokola, C. Howe, J. Honk, J. Hoonstra, L. Olmstead, T. Allen. Trombones: S. Bailey. French Horns: P. Lorke, T. Materna. Flutes: S. Torretta, A. Cook. Cornets: J. Lorke, T. Robinson. Clarinets: D. Allis, M. Bonothon. Oboe: M. Holonen. Violas: J. Kirkpatrick, S. Hudson. Bases: H. Polmer, S. Price, M. Gill. Cello: Mary Walters. Mr. Button.

Sault High has again been fortunate in having its own dance band, the Blu Nates. While this ensemble has not been called upon to perform at many social functions this year, its effort and effect have been just as great. When Student Council announced its dance benefitting the band, Blu Nates answered the call with a fine performance. Hats off to Sault High's unsung heros!

The Sault High Band is ever expanding its broad horizons. After tooting their way through a rushed football workout, members of the blue and gold shot into a fast-moving basketball season. Director Joseph Deike then led the group into its successful concert session, this year featuring a novel all-band concert. Civic duties were not forgotten when the ever-ready players came out in full force to greet the first boat of the 1957 shipping season and to delight spectators in parade performances. The musicians next spread their busy schedule to include neighboring bands. This was seen in the recent band day at Pullar Stadium. The band, strengthened this year by an unusually large number of talented seniors, began to reap the harvest of the work it had sown. A highly commendable first division rating at the district band festival prompted a drive which resulted in funds to send the band members to the state festival in Ann Arbor. Who knows what new horizons will be discovered as they travel ON TO ANN ARBOR!

Rewards For Efforts

The 1956 Blue Devils, with an all out team effort, produced what was probably the greatest team ever to play for Sault High.

This year's team wrapped up the first undefeated-untied season for the school since 1930 and the best record in the school's history consisting of nine victories and no defeats.

The tremendous team effort of the Blue Devils rated them the unanimous choice as the No. 1 grid team in the U.P. and brought home the coveted Barber Trophy, symbolic of U.P. football supremacy. But this was just the beginning. Realizing the superiority of the Blue and White and the terrific potential they possessed.

The Detroit Times and Detroit Free Press rated Sault High as all state Class B Champions. No finer honor could come to the team.

The Blue Devils outscored their opponents by the lopsided total of 287-51 and out-gained them by over 1200 yards gaining 2680 yards while holding the opposition to 1415.

Devil defense brings down Petoskey player

The most honored member of the team was Paul Sabatine who was named as tackle to the All-State first team, the All-U.P. first team, All-U.P. lineman of the year, and given All-American honorable mention. Jack Collins and Brian Youngs were also named to the All U.P. first team. Youngs was Co-Captain of this year's team and honored as its most courageous player while Collins was named most valuable player on the '56 squad. John Fletcher brought home the U.P. scoring crown with 98 points and was placed on the All U.P. 2nd team. Jerry Montero who was also a Co-Captain, landed a berth on the All U.P. Catholic team. Barry Armstrong was on 2nd team and is captain elect for '57.

Bee Football

This year's Bee football squad was under the direction of Coach Sam Dubow. While the team was on the low end of a one win-three loss record, the boys gained a great deal of experience and knowledge on the field.

The grid team shows a great deal of promise for future football potential. After losing their first two games to Newberry, the Bee's traveled down state to beat Cheboygan. The season ended with a loss to J. D. Pierce of Marquette.

Cross Country

Faced with a tremendous rebuilding job, Coach Ernie Kranz worked long and hard with the team. The boys, who had trouble getting together for workout as a team, worked the hills and dales around Sault Teach and developed into fine cindermen.

The schedule was sparse with several dual meets with Pickford and the U.P. finals at Escanaba.

Seniors on the team were Don MacArther and Ralph Gillhooley.

With this year's experience the prospects for 1957 look very good.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM: Jim Ludwig, Tom Talsma, Bob Row, Tom Slater, Dan Sandy, Steve Sanderson, Bill Cooper, Brion Youngs, Jahn Belleau, Pat Price. Kneeling: Jahn Fletcher and Jack Collins.

The 1956-57 Varsity Blue Devils enjoyed a highly successful basketball season. The team, centered around two Seniors, two juniors and two sophomores, played a fine quality of determined ball. With good ball handling and teamwork the "Woody" Ludwig coached squad came up with an impressive 11 win four loss record.

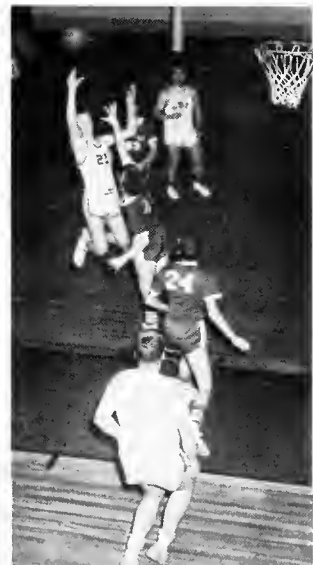

The Sault High "five" went through their fifteen game schedule with an undefeated home record. Sault High teams have not lost a regular season game on their home court since January of 1954; a record the boys can well be proud of.

Arbic in the air

56 - 57 Bee's

The Sault High Bee basketball team enjoyed a successful season by winning eight of their fourteen games. The team made a very impressive showing in Little Eight Conference play competing with class C and D varsity teams. Three juniors and two sophomores formed the nucleus for the 56-57 squad. Barry Armstrong paced the team in scoring with Wesley Esson, Bernard Arbis, and Carl Gordan, all adding their share to the cause. Coached by Sam Dubow, the boys worked long and hard for their fine season.

The Cee's

Sault High basketball's future looks bright with a strong Cee team gaining skill and experience for their seasons ahead. The boys came up with an even five win, five loss record under coach Glen Porterfield. The team displayed good ball handling and all around team balance.

DEFENDING U.P. CLASS B CHAMPIONS

The traditionally strong Sault High track and field team seems sure to have another fine season. While the team has only two seniors on the squad, there is a very strong delegation of junior boys.

This year's cindermen have a well rounded squad in both running and field events. Under the tireless coaching of Ernie Kranz, Barry Armstrong has developed into one of the best shot putters in the school's history. John Fletcher adds to the strength of the team with his potential in the 440 yd. dash, high jump, and relays. Bill Cooper is one of the biggest sparks of the '57 track team with his abilities in the pole vault, 440 yd. dash, high, and relays. With such fine athletes the team is assured of another very successful season, and hope to retain their title as UP Class B champions.

The only seniors on the team are Chuck Whitmore, a veteran half-miler, and John Fletcher.

Golf

Sault High students on the Country Club golf course are working hard to produce a real successful squad. The team is centered around Phil Fleming, the only senior on the squad, Gary Panks, John Belleau, and Fred Clausen, all juniors.

Sault High tied their first meet with Petoskey, down state, but hope to defeat them on home grounds. Other meets scheduled are at Alpena, the UP finals at Escanaba, and possible a home and home series with Collegiate, of Sault, Ont.

Intramural Sports

Home room competition, or intramural sports as they are called, proved to be very interesting, highly competitive, and quite successful. With many boys taking part, the program was closely followed by many students. Under the supervision of Merv Beedle, a representative from each home room drew up basketball, volleyball, and softball schedules. All games were played at noon hours.

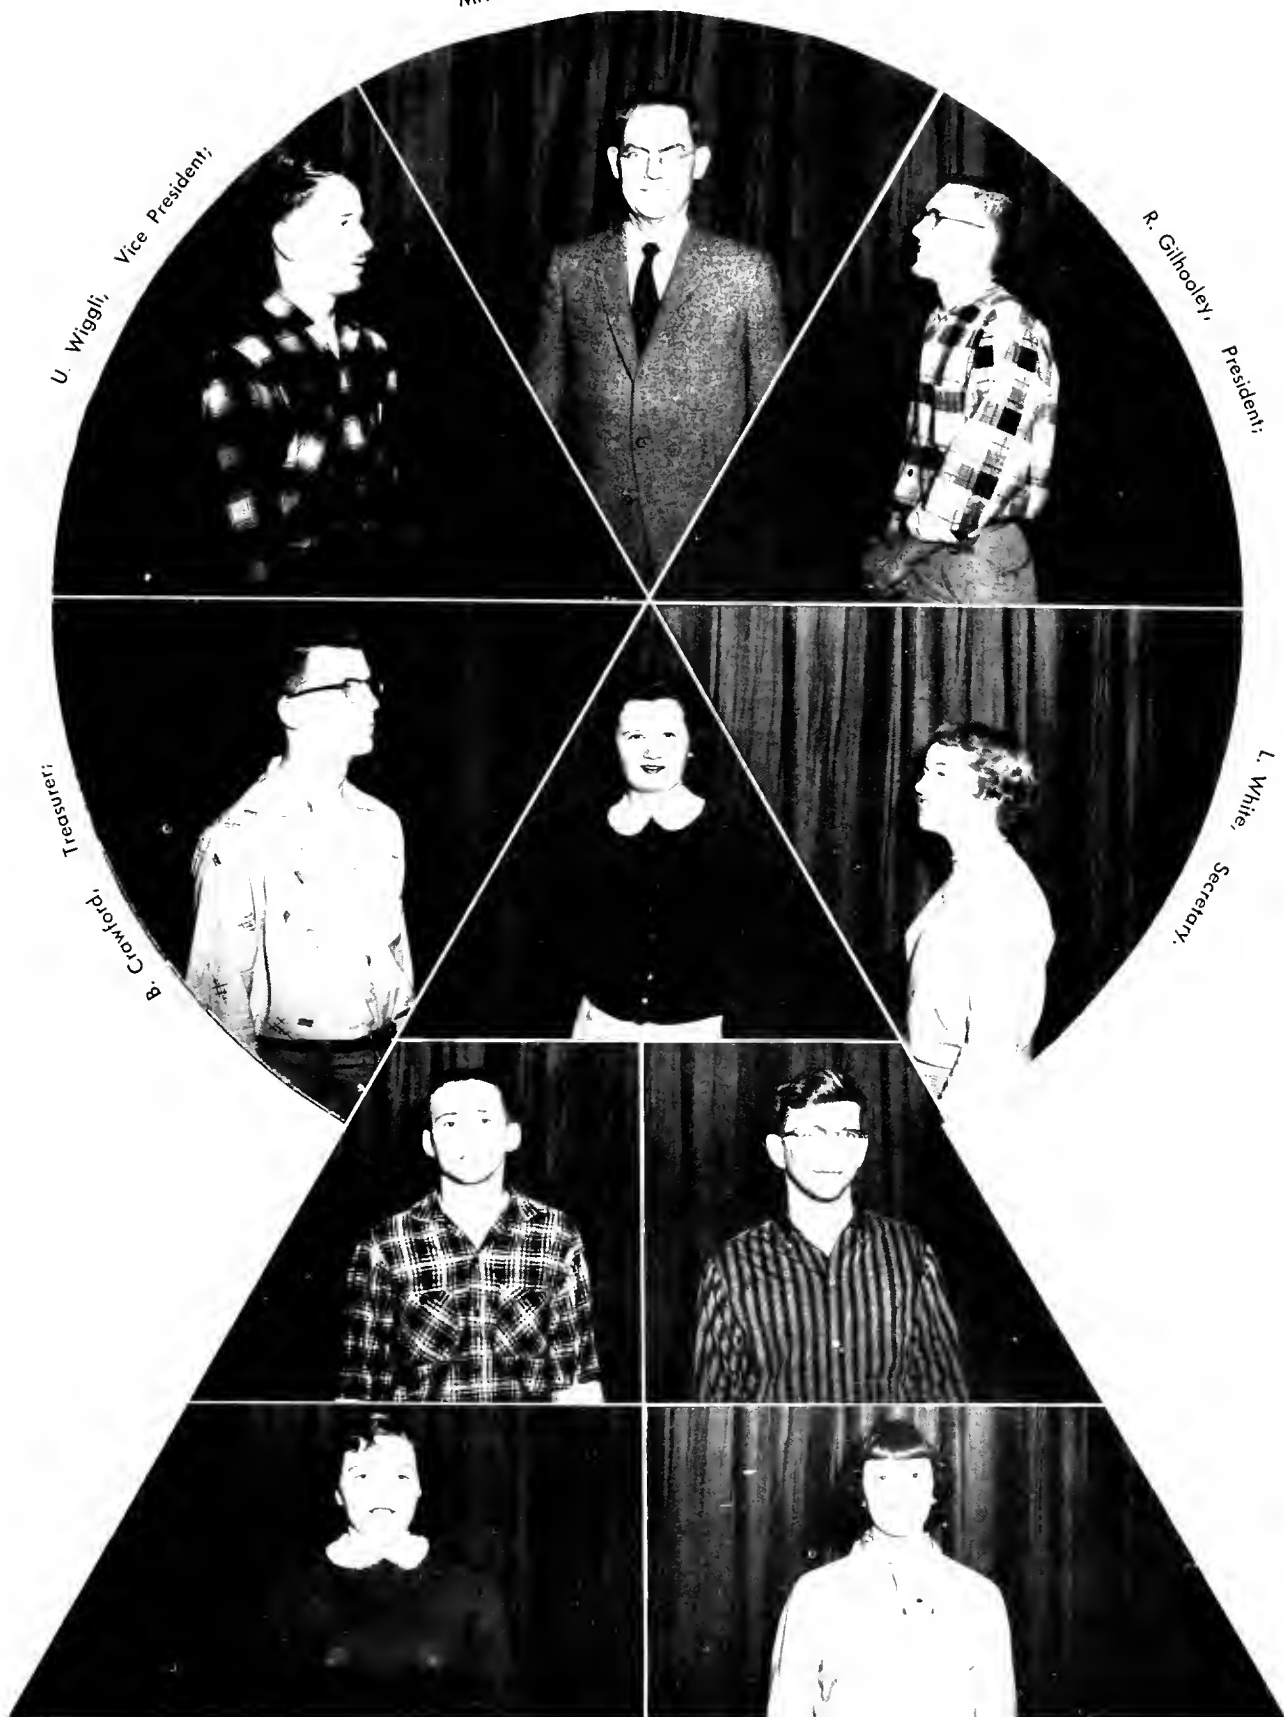

Home room 27 proved to be the top "five" in the basketball loop while volleyball and softball are still in progress. An added attraction in the volleyball circuit was the entrance of a team by the faculty, which is still undefeated.

This giant step across the water brings to an end an era of the ferries and the anticipation of a bridge. The seniors, too, have ended the planning for graduation.

As the bridge brings a new era of travel for many, the seniors embark upon the new area of study, work and learning.
